Zapiro Annual 2026

ZAPIRO

The Long Arm of the Law is the 31st annual collection of Zapiro's legendary cartoons.

The Madlanga Commission has showcased the marvellously named Vusimusi 'Cat' Matlala as chief villain and a crony cast of crooked cops whose skulduggery is wilder than even lifelong sceptics thought possible. Sisisi Tolashe (the one with the Chinese SUVs) is fired and replaced by someone fired from the cabinet 13 years ago for equally dodgy dealings. Trump got caught in the Straitjacket of Hormuz. Panyaza Lesufi suffers the Joburg water crisis in a hotel bath. Helen Zille snorkels in potholes, petrol costs more than caviar, the Phala Phala couch haunts Cyril and the government's AI policy is full of hallucinations after being generated by … AI! Once again, Zapiro never lacks for inspiration.

All The Saints

WESLEY ROODT

In the Eastern Cape, the gale force winds have nothing on the chanting gees of the boys at the prestigious local school. Isaac 'Izzy' Kingston, a recent matriculant and newly minted varsity dropout, has several bashers' worth of hilarious and harrowing school memories to share with a sympathetic audience. Isaac's nostalgic first-person confessional, peppered with tongue-in-cheek observations, takes readers from the testosterone-fuelled excitement and high drama of the rugby field on Reunion Weekend to near-death encounters on overnight excursions in Cradock.

With Isaac's overachieving dreams imploding, interhouse plays gone awry and his queerness firmly parked in the closet, All the Saints is the tragicomic coming of age tale for our time.
